IN LOVE WITH NATURE!

HUNTING FOR A GREEN FUTURE

Dear exhibitors,

The fishing and hunting fair LOV has been organized by Pomurski sejem in Gornja Radgona for two decades. It has been arranged in close cooperation with the Hunting Association of Slovenia, the Fishing Association of Slovenia, and the other foremost professional and rank organizations that care for wild animals and the preservation of natural biodiversity.

Slovenia is the leader in Europe in terms of the number of animal and plant species per square kilometre. It lies at the junction of the Alpine, Pannonian, Dinaric and Mediterranean biogeographical regions and is characterised by diverse relief, varied bedrock, and different soil and climatic conditions. The country's exceptional resources have given rise to a true wealth of ecosystems and plant and animal species. All this should not lull us to sleep... Slovenia is also a country that is warming much faster than other parts of the world, and we are also affected by increasingly frequent natural disasters.

The answers to the question of how best to protect the pristine paradise gardens of Slovenia and the world will be sought together with the most important hunting, fishing, cynology, forestry, tourism and nature conservation organisations at the 13th International Hunting and Fishing Fair in Gornja Radgona from 5 to 7 April 2024. In addition to new knowledge and insights, the fair will offer a wide selection of equipment and accessories for responsible and safe interaction for spending time in nature, hunting, fishing, and with canines. There will also be a wide range of ideas and tips for outdoor activities.

As an important part of sustainable tourism, the exhibition of vintage vehicles "AUTO-MOTO CLASSICS" will embody the care for technical heritage.

All those who love the unspoilt environment will be brought together by rank organisations, as well as social, competitive, and culinary events in a bid to preserve it for future generations.

We cordially invite you to present your products, services, ideas and expertise at the Hunting and Fishing Fair. Fulfil the common mission of preserving the natural environment by achieving your sustainable business goals.

Janez Erjavec, President of the Management Board
